

BARCELONA GALLERY WEEKEND 2020

GALERÍA ZIELINSKY

JOÃO FARKAS

Biography

João Farkas (1955, Sao Paulo, Brasil) has been documenting for over 30 years the relationship between the society and their context, within landscapes and the impacts caused by human existence in some regions of Brazil, and through popular costumes, culture and festivity.

His work has been selected to participate in solo and group shows, highlighting: The Latin American Library (Tulane University), New Orleans, USA; Instituto Tomie Ohtake, Brazil; MIS – Museu da Imagem e do Som, São Paulo, Brazil; MAR-Museu de Arte do Rio, Brazil; among others. Collections holding his works include: Maison Européenne de la Photographie, France; ICP – International Center of Photography, USA; Pirelli MASP, Brazil. Published the books “Amazônia Ocupada”, 2015; “Trancoso”, 2016 and “Caretas de Maragojipe”, 2018.

joaofarkas.com