JUAN CARLOS VALDIVIEZO

Biography

Juan Carlos Valdiviezo (Machala. Ecuador, 1981; lives and works in Barcelona) began his professional training in Barcelona, at the School of Applied Arts Llotja.

“A strong sense of ancestral ties and modern society full of indigenous traditions and Western conventions forged a complicated mix of a slightly displaced character who can make as much of a home in the city streets or the jungle.

[...] Unafraid to shy away from the basic elements of humanity, JuanCarlos often confronts topics such as sexuality and violence. He will often place relief sculptures on the city walls (such as Street Venus) that leave the viewer questioning how they were placed there”.
